Board comments

President Jacobson told the Board that they should look into the Zoning Board. All terms have expired and if there is a need for them the Village should be prepared. President Jacobson explained that the Village has sent invoices to the owner of Tails of Hebron for plowing. The new squad car will be picked up on Thursday. President Jacobson asked if the Board had any ideas for senior bussing. He would like a couple Trustees to work on the issue. Clerk Smith-Miller asked the Board to consider the purchase of a computer for the President as the old desktop was not working well.

Attorney's comments None
